PASTOR'S DESK:

You may have noticed a new addition to the Basilica. At the front, to the left of the Altar, there is a new statue of Our Lady Queen of Heaven (Regina Caeli in Latin). This statue perfectly fits in what was formerly known as the "Seasonal Shrine". The statue, an image of Our Lady under her title "Queen of Heaven," is what gives the shrine its new name the "Regina Caeli Shrine". The name comes from the opening lines of an ancient Easter antiphon "Regina Caeli Laetare", which means "Queen of Heaven rejoice." The antiphon is sung during the Easter season, and calls to mind the great joy of Our Lady at the Resurrection of her Son.

The new statue was blessed by His Excellency, Bishop Crosby, on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, when he officially declared the Basilica to be the Diocesan Shrine of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This beautiful statue is rich in symbolism. The tradition of portraying Our Lady as Queen of Heaven dates from the Middle Ages, and has been a popular depiction of the Blessed Virgin ever since. The title, Queen of Heaven, is intimately connected with the doctrine of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and speaks to the indispensable role of the Queen Mother in the Davidic Kingdom, which is perfectly fulfilled in the Mother of God. The crowns on the heads of Jesus and Mary indicate their royal role as King and Queen of Heaven and Earth. The jewels on the band of Our Lady's crown represent all the peoples of the earth. In her hand is a sceptre calling to mind the authority vested in her by Christ, and the Cross at the top of the sceptre reminds us that Our Lady herself is subject to Christ, and that even her Immaculate Conception was brought about by the merits of the Cross. The blue and red, which also feature prominently in the nave windows, tell us that Mary is both Virgin and Mother, and that she shares most intimately in the Passion of her Son, while the gold reminds us that she also shares fully in the glory of His resurrection. As in the nave windows Our Lady is close to Jesus, but not possessive of Him. It is customary in ancient and medieval iconography that Our Lady does not hold Jesus in towards her, but holds him out towards us. She fulfils her role of bringing Our Lord to His people, and bringing us to Him. It is worth noting that Our Lady appears as Queen of Heaven in three windows in the Basilica, one in the Sanctuary, one in the Nave, and in the great Rose Window above the Organ.

The statue was made at the Demetz sculpture company high in the Italian Alps, and arrived in Canada just in time for its dedication on December 9th. It stands four feet tall, and is made of fiberglass, as it has to be light enough to be carried in the processions which will soon become a feature of our new designation as a Marian Shrine. My sincere thanks to the Catholic Women's League and the Knights of Columbus who shared the cost of the new statue. I hope that as you pray before this image of Our Lady, Queen of Heaven in the Regina Caeli Shrine, you will be drawn "to Jesus through Mary." You are welcome to join our Rosary Guild, who pray to the Rosary at the Regina Caeli Shrine following each weekday Mass.

On behalf of myself, Father Bill Foote, Deacon Quinto Tami, Deacon Robin Mendonca and all the Parish Staff we wish to extend our prayers and best wishes for a blessed and joy-filled celebration of Christmas to all the members of the Basilica of Our Lady Immaculate Parish.

God Bless you always, Father Ian
